THE MILLARD SHORTAGE. County Attorney Melville Says it is Due to Incompetency.

The information having become public that Frank Rogers, ex-county treasurer of Millard Co., was short in his urer of Millard Co., was short in his accounts, the "News" today interviewed Jas. Alex Melville, county attorney of said county, who is in the city on prithe ex-treasurer was indebted to the county and county school fund in a sum a little in excess of $1,600, and that it was reported he was owing the $50,000. sp. at school fund of Abraham a small amount. "At the last meeting of the county commissioners," said Mr. Melville, "I was instructed to notify his bondsmen of the delinquency."

bondsmen of the delinquency."

Mr. Melville stated further that Mr. Rogers claimed to be able to settle his accounts in full as soon as he could dispose of his property; that the ex-treasurer was a young man about 25 years of age, who had the misfortune several years ago to come in contact with a saw at the lumber yard which cut him severely and resulted in the amputation of one of his legs; that he was elected to the position through sympathy and that in his opinion there had been no that in his opinion there had been no criminal intent on the part of Mr. Rogers, but that the shortage, if such there was, was the result of carelessness and incompetency rather than dishonesty.

The bondsmen responsible for the official conduct of Mr. Rogers are James Chipman and B. G. Raybould of this city, Alma Greenwood, Geo, Greenway, Orin Rogers, Lewis Critchleye, Emery Rogers, George Rogers, Peter Beauregard, Eugene Coigrove and James W. Huntsman of Fillmore.

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM. Or Your Hair Will Fall Out Till You Become Bald.

Modern science has discovered that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp in scales, as it burrows down to the roots of the hair, where it down to the roots of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing talling hair, and, ultimately, baldness. After Prof. Unna of Hamburg, Germany, discovered the dandruff germ, all efforts to find a remedy failed until the great inboratory discovery was made which resulted in Newbro's Herpicide. It alone of all other hair preparations kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Dedruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." That of Granite Stake Tabernacle Set Up With Due Geremony

PREST. WINDER OFFICIATED

Pleasing Incident in Connection with The Quarterly Conference-Eider Miller's Successor.

The regular quarterly conference of the Granite stake was held in the Farmers ward meetinghouse Saturday and Sunday. The time in Saturday's meetings was mainly devoted to the chaser. hearing of reports, while excellent discourses were delivered in the meetings yesterday. A short Sunday school session was held in the forenoon, at which President Joseph F. Smith spoke interestingly to the children about his boy hood experience. At II o'clock a. m. immediately after the close of the Sun day school, the regular conference was continued, and the speakers in that meeting were Elders Hyrum M. Smith and Angus M. Cannon. The afternoon meeting was addressed by Presidents Anthon H. Lund, John R. Winder and Joseph F. Smith. Among the many other visitors present were Elders

Joseph F. Smith. Among the many other visitors present were Elders Abraham O. Woodruff, Rudger Clawson and Andrew Jenson.

After the close of the afternoon services, about 4:30 p. m., the whole assemblage proceeded in carriages, by street cars and otherwise about two miles south to the intersection of Fourteenth South street and the State road, where the new tabernoole for the Grantte the new tabernacle for the Granite stake of Zion is in course of construc-stake of Zion is in course of construc-tion. The basement is already built and a temporary floor had been laid (with a stand in the east end) on which short services were held.

Elder Frank Y. Taylor, the president of the stake, gave a brief history of the progress of the tabernacle so far, and project both Saints and strangers for praised both Saints and strangers for their liberality in subscribing means toward the erection of the new building. Elder George M. Cannon, chairman the finance committee, gave a de-iled financial report, after which brief and appropriate remarks were made by Presidents Lund and Smith. The beautiful singing in this service was done by the Sugar ward choir, un-der the direction of Prof. Joseph J. Daynes. The services being over, the people removed to the southwest corner of the building, where President John R. Winder, dressed in the garb of a mason, proceeded to lay the cornerstone mason, proceeded to lay the cornerstone of the building, which ceremony he completed by delivering a neat little speech, in which he blessed the workmen who were engaged in the construction work, and hoped that the building would be finished in six months, so far at least that the fall quarterly conference could be held in it, as fondly anticipated.

famous military company, arrived in this city yesterday in a special train of seven cars over the Rio Grande on a transcontinental trip. The company was organized in 137, and figured as an organization in three wars. After the regular services at the Tabernacle yesterday, the command was treated to a special organ recital by Prof. McClellan. The company has a record of seven chief executives for whom it has acted as escort. It was the escort for Presidents Harrison, Hayes. Grant, Garfield and McKinley.

The Cleveland Greys have also assisted at the inaugural ceremonies of many governors of their state. They escorted General W. H. Harrison, the ninth president, from Fort Meigs to Cleveland during the campaign of 1840. In 1876 they were the escort of Hayes when mangurated governor of Ohio, and acted in the same capacity for Grant in 1879 upon his historical trip around the world. They were the body guard of President Garfield upon his return to the executive mansion.

They also held a position of nonor in the inaugural parade of President Benjamin Harrison and performed the same honor for President McKinley in the trip from Canton to Columbus in 1892. They assisted at his first inauguration as governor, when he was at the dedication of the World's fair, and again a short time before his assassination, when he reviewed the troops at the reunion of the blue and the gray at Evansville, Ind. The veteran of the Greys is George Tibbit, who is by years of age, and has been a member of the organization by years. The members are spending today in town visiting various points of interest.
